- e. After the closing date of the vacancy notice, the Human Resources Director and the appropriate department head will review each application and rank those applicants who are determined to be qualified for the vacancy.
- f. All applications received in response to a vacancy notice will remain active until the selected applicant has completed the required probationary period. If the selected applicant does not successfully complete the required probationary period, the vacancy will be filled from the remaining qualified applicants. If no qualified applicants remain on file, the vacancy will be advertised again.

2. Selection.

- d. All selections shall be conditional subject to completion of section 3, 4, 5, and 6 of this policy.

3. Employment Officers.

- a. After a review of all referred applicants, the Mayor shall forward his/her recommendation to the City Council for their final approval.
- b. The Mayor shall ensure that the appointment grade and/or salary of all new employees are established in accordance with the provisions of SECTION 11 - COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS.

4. Pre-Employment Testing. For some job classifications, the City of Oneonta requires that applicants for employment submit to a test for illegal drugs or alcohol prior to employment. Failure or refusal to submit to a test will result in withdrawal of a conditional offer of employment and/or discharge of employment if employed pending receipt of the test results. No applicant will be asked to take a test unless an offer of employment has been made. All offers of employment are conditional upon a negative test result. Employment applicants taking legally prescribed medications must notify the Human Resources Office of such, prior to the pre-employment testing.

5. Pre-employment Health Screening. Offers of employment may be conditioned on completion of a medical examination, to ensure that the person is capable of performing the job's essential functions with reasonable accommodation, in accordance with the ADA. Failure to submit to or complete a medical examination is viewed as rejection of the offer of employment.

6. Immigration Reform and Control Act. All new employees, regardless of employment status, are required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 to complete a government form I-9 before, or immediately following, employment. This form attests to the individuals' eligibility for employment in the United States. Certain documents, which will prove an individual's eligibility for employment in the United States, must be presented to the person processing the employment papers. Each newly hired employee must present either an original document which establishes both employment authorization and identity or an original document which establishes employment authorization and a separate original document which establishes identity within three (3) days of their first day of work. Employees will also be subjected to the E-Verify process as well as any other additional state immigration requirements. Establishing and maintaining eligibility for employment in the United States is a condition of employment.

If the requirement for the position is anticipated to remain after one (1) year, action will be initiated to have the position authorized as a merit position and filled in accordance with the staffing procedures specified for merit positions. The purpose of this requirement is to ensure that the appointment of a temporary employee is not used to bypass the equal employment opportunity requirements established by these rules, regulations and procedures and federal laws.

3. The pay for temporary employees will be established in accordance with the provisions of SECTION 11 - COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS.

D. PROBATIONARY PERIOD.

1. Every new employee hired for a merit position shall serve a period of one (1) year as a probationary employee before being designated a merit employee. The probationary period shall be considered an integral part of the training and evaluation process for new employees and shall be utilized for closely observing the employees' work, for determining his/her suitability for employment in the city, and for separating any new employee who does not meet city standards.

- b. The function of this policy is to provide employees with a general description of their FMLA rights. In the event of any conflict between this policy and the applicable law, employees will be afforded all rights required by law.
- c. Employees who have any questions, concerns, or disputes with this policy, must contact The Human Resources Director in writing.

2. Granting of Leave

Under this policy, the City of Oneonta will grant up to 12 weeks of leave during a 12-month period to eligible employees (or up to 26 weeks of military caregiver leave to care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness). The leave may be paid, unpaid or a combination of paid and unpaid leave, depending on the circumstances of the leave and as specified in this policy.

3. Eligibility

- a. To qualify to take family or medical leave under this policy, the employee must meet all of the following conditions:
 - 1. The employee must have worked for the City for 12 months or 52 weeks. The 12 months or 52 weeks need not have been consecutive. Separate periods of employment will be counted, provided that the break in service does not exceed seven years. Separate periods of employment will be counted if the break in service exceeds seven years due to National Guard or Reserve military service obligations or when there is a written agreement, including a collective bargaining agreement, stating the employer's intention to rehire the employee after the service break. For eligibility purposes, an employee will be considered to have been employed for an entire week even if the employee was on the payroll for only part of a week or if the employee is on leave during the week.

2. The employee must have worked at least 1,250 hours during the 12-month period immediately preceding the commencement of the leave. The 1,250 hours do not include time spent on paid or unpaid leave. Consequently, these hours of leave should not be counted in determining the 1,250 hours eligibility test for an employee under FMLA.
3. The employee must work in a worksite where 50 or more employees are employed by the City within 75 miles of that office or worksite. The distance is to be calculated by using available transportation by the most direct route.

valid in the place where entered into and could have been entered into in at least one state. This definition includes an individual in a same-sex or common law marriage that either:

1. was entered into in a state that recognizes such marriages; or
 2. if entered into outside of any state, is valid in the place where entered into and could have been entered into in at least one state.
- c. A serious health condition is defined as a condition that requires inpatient care at a hospital, hospice or residential medical care facility, including any period of incapacity or any subsequent treatment in connection with such inpatient care or a condition that requires continuing care by a licensed health care provider.
- d. This policy covers illnesses of a serious and long-term nature, resulting in recurring or lengthy absences. Generally, a chronic or long-term health condition that would result in a period of three consecutive days of incapacity with the first visit to the health care provider within seven days of the onset of the incapacity and a second visit within 30 days of the incapacity would be considered a serious health condition. For chronic conditions requiring periodic health care visits for treatment, such visits must take place at least twice a year.
- e. Employees with questions about what illnesses are covered under this FMLA policy or under the City's sick leave policy are encouraged to consult with the Human Resources Director.
- f. If an employee takes paid sick leave for a condition that progresses into a serious health condition and the employee requests unpaid leave as provided under this policy, the City may designate all or some portion of related leave taken as leave under this policy, to the extent that the earlier leave meets the necessary qualifications.

5. Qualifying exigency leave for families of members of the National Guard or Reserve or of a regular component of the Armed Forces when the covered military member is on covered active duty or called to covered active duty.
 - a. An employee whose spouse, son, daughter or parent either has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active military duty or who is already on covered active duty may take up to 12 weeks of leave for reasons related to or affected by the family member's call-up or service. The qualifying exigency must be one of the following:
 1. short-notice deployment
 2. military events and activities
 3. child care and school activities
 4. financial and legal arrangements
 5. counseling
 6. rest and recuperation
 7. post-deployment activities
 8. additional activities that arise out of active duty, provided that the employer and employee agree, including agreement on timing and duration of the leave.
 - b. Eligible employees are entitled to FMLA leave to care for a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserve, or a member of the Armed Forces, the National Guard or Reserve who is on the temporary disability retired list, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty for which he or she is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or otherwise in outpatient status; or otherwise on the temporary disability retired list. Eligible employees may not take leave under this provision to care for former members of the Armed Forces, former members of the National Guard and Reserve, or members on the permanent disability retired list.

6. To care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness if the employee is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of the covered servicemember.
 - a. A “son or daughter of a covered servicemember” means the covered servicemember's biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild or legal ward, or a child for whom the covered servicemember stood in loco parentis, and who is of any age.
 - b. A “parent of a covered servicemember” means a covered servicemember's biological, adoptive, step or foster father or mother, or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to the covered servicemember. This term does not include parents in law.
 - c. The “next of kin of a covered servicemember” is the nearest blood relative, other than the covered servicemember's spouse, parent, son or daughter, in the following order of priority: blood relatives who have been granted legal custody of the servicemember by court decree or statutory provisions, brothers and sisters, grandparents, aunts and uncles, and first cousins, unless the covered servicemember has specifically designated in writing another blood relative as his or her nearest blood relative for purposes of military caregiver leave under the FMLA. When no such designation is made, and there are multiple family members with the same level of relationship to the covered servicemember, all such family members shall be considered the covered servicemember's next of kin and may take FMLA leave to provide care to the covered servicemember, either consecutively or simultaneously. When such designation has been made, the designated individual shall be deemed to be the covered servicemember's only next of kin. For example, if a covered servicemember has three siblings and has not designated a blood relative to provide care, all three siblings would be considered the covered servicemember's next of kin. Alternatively, where a covered servicemember has siblings and designates a cousin as his or her next of kin for FMLA purposes, then only the designated cousin is eligible as the covered servicemember's next of kin. An employer is permitted to require an employee to provide confirmation of covered family relationship to the covered servicemember pursuant to § 825.122(k).

- d. "Covered active duty" means:
 - 1. "Covered active duty" for members of a regular component of the Armed Forces means duty during deployment of the member with the Armed Forces to a foreign country.
 - 2. Covered active duty or call to covered active duty status in the case of a member of the Reserve components of the Armed Forces means duty during the deployment of the member with the Armed Forces to a foreign country under a federal call or order to active duty in support of a contingency operation, in accordance with 29 CR 825.102.
- e. The leave may commence as soon as the individual receives the call-up notice. (Son or daughter for this type of FMLA leave is defined the same as for child for other types of FMLA leave except that the person does not have to be a minor.) This type of leave would be counted toward the employee's 12-week maximum of FMLA leave in a 12-month period.
- 7. Military caregiver leave (also known as covered servicemember leave) to care for an injured or ill servicemember or veteran.
 - a. An employee whose son, daughter, parent or next of kin is a covered servicemember may take up to 26 weeks of leave in a single 12-month period to care for that servicemember.

- b. Next of kin is defined as the closest blood relative of the injured or recovering servicemember.
- c. The term “covered servicemember” means:
 - 1. a member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserve) who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; is otherwise in outpatient status; or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness; or
 - 2. a veteran who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness and who was a member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserve) at any time during the period of 5 years preceding the date on which the veteran undergoes that medical treatment, recuperation or therapy.
- d. The term “serious injury or illness” means:
 - 1. in the case of a member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserve), means an injury or illness that was incurred by the member in line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces (or existed before the beginning of the member’s active duty and was aggravated by service in line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces) and that may render the member medically unfit to perform the duties of the member’s office, grade, rank or rating;
 - 2. in the case of a veteran who was a member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserve) at any time during a period when the person was a covered servicemember, means a qualifying (as defined by the Secretary of Labor) injury or illness incurred by a covered servicemember in the line of duty on active duty that may render the servicemember medically unfit to perform the duties of his or her office, grade, rank or rating.

3. Outpatient status, with respect to a covered servicemember, means the status of a member of the Armed Forces assigned to either a military medical treatment facility as an outpatient; or a unit established for the purpose of providing command and control of members of the Armed Forces receiving medical care as outpatients.

5. Amount of Leave.

- a. An eligible employee can take up to 12 weeks for the FMLA circumstances (No. 1) through (No. 5) above under this policy during any 12-month period. The City will measure the 12-month period as a rolling 12-month period measured backward from the date an employee uses any leave under this policy. Each time an employee takes leave, the City will compute the amount of leave the employee has taken under this policy in the last 12 months and subtract it from the 12 weeks of available leave, and the balance remaining is the amount the employee is entitled to take at that time.
- b. An eligible employee can take up to 26 weeks for the FMLA circumstance (No. 6) above (military caregiver leave) during a single 12-month period. For this military caregiver leave, the City will measure the 12-month period as a rolling 12-month period measured forward. FMLA leave already taken for other FMLA circumstances will be deducted from the total of 26 weeks available.
- c. If a husband and wife both work for the City and each wishes to take leave for the birth of a child, adoption or placement of a child in foster care, or to care for a parent (but not a parent "in-law") with a serious health condition, the husband and wife may only take a combined total of 12 weeks of leave. If a husband and wife both work for the City and each wishes to take leave to care for a covered injured or ill servicemember, the husband and wife may only take a combined total of 26 weeks of leave.

6. Employee Status and Benefits During Leave.

- a. While an employee is on leave, the City will continue the employee's health benefits during the leave period at the same level and under the same conditions as if the employee had continued to work.
- b. If the employee chooses not to return to work for reasons other than a continued serious health condition of the employee or the employee's family member or a circumstance beyond the employee's control, the City will require the employee to reimburse the City the amount it paid for the employee's health insurance premium during the leave period.
- c. Under current City policy, the employee pays a portion of the health care premium. While on paid leave, the employer will continue to make payroll deductions to collect the employee's share of the premium. While on unpaid leave, the employee must continue to make this payment, either in person or by mail. The payment must be received in the Accounting Department by the first day of each month. If the payment is more than 30 days late, the employee's health care coverage may be dropped for the duration of the leave.
- d. The employer will provide 15 days' notification prior to the employee's loss of coverage.
- e. If the employee contributes to a life insurance or disability plan, the employer will continue making payroll deductions while the employee is on paid leave. While the employee is on unpaid leave, the employee may request continuation of such benefits and pay his or her portion of the premiums, or the employer may elect to maintain such benefits during the leave and pay the employee's share of the premium payments. If the employee does not continue these payments, the employer may discontinue coverage during the leave. If the employer maintains coverage, the employer may recover the costs incurred for paying the employee's share of any premiums, whether or not the employee returns to work.

7. Employee Status After Leave.

An employee who takes leave under this policy may be asked to provide a fitness for duty (FFD) clearance from a health care provider. This requirement will be included in the employer's response to the FMLA request. Generally, an employee who takes FMLA leave will be able to return to the same position or a position with equivalent status, pay, benefits and other employment terms. The position will be the same or one that is virtually identical in terms of pay, benefits and working conditions. The City may choose to exempt certain key employees from this requirement and not return them to the same or similar position when doing so will cause substantial and grievous economic injury to business operations. Key employees will be given written notice at the time FMLA leave is requested of his or her status as a key employee.

8. Use of Paid and Unpaid Leave.

- a. An employee who is taking FMLA leave because of the employee's own serious health condition or the serious health condition of a family member must use all paid vacation, personal or sick leave prior to being eligible for unpaid leave. Sick leave may be run concurrently with FMLA leave if the reason for the FMLA leave is covered by the established sick leave policy.
- b. Disability leave for the birth of a child and for an employee's serious health condition, including workers' compensation leave (to the extent that it qualifies), will be designated as FMLA leave and will run concurrently with FMLA. For example, if an employer provides six weeks of pregnancy disability leave, the six weeks will be designated as FMLA leave and counted toward the employee's 12-week entitlement. The employee may then be required to substitute accrued (or earned) paid leave as appropriate before being eligible for unpaid leave for what remains of the 12-week entitlement. An employee who is taking leave for the adoption or foster care of a child must use all paid vacation, personal or family leave prior to being eligible for unpaid leave.
- c. An employee who is using military FMLA leave for a qualifying exigency must use all paid vacation and personal leave prior to being eligible for unpaid leave. An employee using FMLA military caregiver leave must also use all paid vacation, personal leave or sick leave (as long as the reason for the absence is covered by the City's sick leave policy) prior to being eligible for unpaid leave.

9. Intermittent Leave or a Reduced Work Schedule.

- a. The employee may take FMLA leave in 12 consecutive weeks, may use the leave intermittently (take a day periodically when needed over the year) or, under certain circumstances, may use the leave to reduce the workweek or workday, resulting in a reduced hour schedule. In all cases, the leave may not exceed a total of 12 workweeks (or 26 workweeks to care for an injured or ill servicemember over a 12-month period).
- b. The City of Oneonta may temporarily transfer an employee to an available alternative position with equivalent pay and benefits if the alternative position would better accommodate the intermittent or reduced schedule, in instances when leave for the employee or employee's family member is foreseeable and for planned medical treatment, including recovery from a serious health condition or to care for a child after birth or placement for adoption or foster care.
- c. For the birth, adoption or foster care of a child, the City and the employee must mutually agree to the schedule before the employee may take the leave intermittently or work a reduced-hour schedule. Leave for birth, adoption or foster care of a child must be taken within one year of the birth or placement of the child.
- d. If the employee is taking leave for a serious health condition or because of the serious health condition of a family member, the employee should try to reach agreement with the City before taking intermittent leave or working a reduced-hour schedule. If this is not possible, then the employee must prove that the use of the leave is medically necessary.

10. Certification for the Employee's Serious Health Condition.

- a. The City of Oneonta will require certification for the employee's serious health condition. The employee must respond to such a request within 15 days of the request or provide a reasonable explanation for the delay. Failure to provide certification may result in a denial of continuation of leave. Medical certification will be provided using the DOL Certification of Health Care Provider for Employee's Serious Health Condition.
- b. The City of Oneonta may directly contact the employee's health care provider for verification or clarification purposes using a health care professional, an HR professional, leave administrator or management official. The City will not use the employee's direct supervisor for this contact. Before the City makes this direct contact with the health care provider, the employee will be given an opportunity to resolve any deficiencies in the medical certification. In compliance with HIPAA Medical Privacy Rules, the City will obtain the employee's permission for clarification of individually identifiable health information.
- c. The City of Oneonta has the right to ask for a second opinion if it has reason to doubt the certification. The City will pay for the employee to get a certification from a second doctor, which the City will select. The City may deny FMLA leave to an employee who refuses to release relevant medical records to the health care provider designated to provide a second or third opinion. If necessary to resolve a conflict between the original certification and the second opinion, the City will require the opinion of a third doctor. The City and the employee will mutually select the third doctor, and the City will pay for the opinion. This third opinion will be considered final. The employee will be provisionally entitled to leave and benefits under the FMLA pending the second and/or third opinion.

11. Certification for the Family Member's Serious Health Condition.

- a. The City will require certification for the family member's serious health condition. The employee must respond to such a request within 15 days of the request or provide a reasonable explanation for the delay. Failure to provide certification may result in a denial of continuation of leave. Medical certification will be provided using the DOL Certification of Health Care Provider for Family Member's Serious Health Condition.

- b. The City may directly contact the employee's family member's health care provider for verification or clarification purposes using a health care professional, an HR professional, leave administrator or management official. The City will not use the employee's direct supervisor for this contact. Before the City makes this direct contact with the health care provider, the employee will be given an opportunity to resolve any deficiencies in the medical certification. In compliance with HIPAA Medical Privacy Rules, the City will obtain the employee's family member's permission for clarification of individually identifiable health information.
- c. The City has the right to ask for a second opinion if it has reason to doubt the certification. The City will pay for the employee's family member to get a certification from a second doctor, which the City will select. The City may deny FMLA leave to an employee whose family member refuses to release relevant medical records to the health care provider designated to provide a second or third opinion. If necessary to resolve a conflict between the original certification and the second opinion, the City will require the opinion of a third doctor. The City and the employee will mutually select the third doctor, and the City will pay for the opinion. This third opinion will be considered final. The employee will be provisionally entitled to leave and benefits under the FMLA pending the second and/or third opinion.

12. Certification of Qualifying Exigency for Military Family Leave.

The City will require certification of the qualifying exigency for military family leave. The employee must respond to such a request within 15 days of the request or provide a reasonable explanation for the delay. Failure to provide certification may result in a denial of continuation of leave. This certification will be provided using the DOL Certification of Qualifying Exigency for Military Family Leave.

13. Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of Covered Servicemember for Military Family Leave.

The City will require certification for the serious injury or illness of the covered servicemember. The employee must respond to such a request within 15 days of the request or provide a reasonable explanation for the delay. Failure to provide certification may result in a denial of continuation of leave. This certification will be provided using the DOL Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of Covered Servicemember.

14. Recertification.

The City may request recertification for the serious health condition of the employee or the employee's family member no more frequently than every 30 days unless circumstances have changed significantly, or if the employer receives information casting doubt on the reason given for the absence, or if the employee seeks an extension of his or her leave. Otherwise, the City may request recertification for the serious health condition of the employee or the employee's family member every six months in connection with an FMLA absence. The City may provide the employee's health care provider with the employee's attendance records and ask whether need for leave is consistent with the employee's serious health condition.

15. Procedure for Requesting FMLA Leave.

- a. All employees requesting FMLA leave must provide verbal or written notice of the need for the leave to the HR Director. Within five business days after the employee has provided this notice, the HR Director will complete and provide the employee with the DOL Notice of Eligibility and Rights.
- b. When the need for the leave is foreseeable, the employee must provide the employer with at least 30 days' notice. When an employee becomes aware of a need for FMLA leave less than 30 days in advance, the employee must provide notice of the need for the leave either the same day the need for leave is discovered or the next business day. When the need for FMLA leave is not foreseeable, the employee must comply with the City's usual and customary notice and procedural requirements for requesting leave, absent unusual circumstances.

16. Designation of FMLA Leave.

Within five business days after the employee has submitted the appropriate certification form, the HR director will complete and provide the employee with a written response to the employee's request for FMLA leave using the DOL Designation Notice.

17. Intent to Return to Work from FMLA Leave.

On a basis that does not discriminate against employees on FMLA leave, the City may require an employee on FMLA leave to report periodically on the employee's status and intent to return to work.

G. ATTENDANCE RECORDS.

Mayor and City Administrator are responsible for evaluating/reevaluating jobs and assigning an appropriate pay grade level for each city job. The approved job classification plan will be used for such evaluation/reevaluation.

- b. No deviations in pay grade levels will be made from the approved classification plan. When circumstances warrant, the entire plan or the classification of a particular job in the plan may be amended by the Mayor and City Council.
- c. The approved classification plan will be maintained in the City of Oneonta Personnel System Manual.
- d. The City Administrator shall review the classification plan on a periodic basis to ensure that it is correct and current. Corrections and/or additions will be approved by the Mayor and City Council.

All employees are required to report to work neatly groomed and dressed and are expected to maintain personal hygiene habits that are generally accepted in the community, including clean clothing, good grooming and personal hygiene, and appropriate attire for the workplace and the work being performed. This may include wearing uniforms or protective safety clothing and equipment, depending upon the job. Use common sense and good judgment in determining what to wear to work.

2. Dress standards for employees are set by their department head and will be appropriate for the job being performed. In the absence of stated dress standards, clothing must be appropriate for the employee's job responsibilities and shall always present a professional appearance to the public. If uniforms are required, they should be kept neat, clean and mended at all times. Uniforms should be worn when an employee is on the job but not otherwise. Uniforms provided by the City are considered the property of the City and shall be returned to the City at the end of their useful life or when no longer needed by the employee for performance of their duties.
3. In setting the dress standard, the department head will consider:

 - a. the nature of the work;
 - b. safety considerations;
 - c. the nature of the employee's public contact;
 - d. the prevailing practices of other workers in similar jobs; and
 - e. the performance of department employees, including consideration of the type of image the department wishes to project
4. Fragrant products, including but not limited to perfumes, colognes, and scented body lotions or hair products, should be used in moderation out of concern for others with sensitivities or allergies.
5. The City of Oneonta, in accordance with applicable law, will reasonably accommodate employees with disabilities or religious beliefs that make it difficult for them to comply fully with the personal appearance policy unless doing so would impose an undue hardship on the City of Oneonta. Employees should contact their supervisor to request a reasonable accommodation.
6. Failure to comply with the personal appearance standards may result in being sent home to groom or change clothes. Frequent violations may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

B. OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT.

1. Employment with the City will be considered by all full-time classified employees as their primary job. Employees are required to obtain written approval from their Appointing Authority through their department head before participating in other employment activities. A copy of the written approval shall be forwarded to the Human Resources Office to be filed in the employee's personnel record. Approval will be granted unless the secondary employment activity conflicts, or interferes with, or is likely to conflict or interfere with the employee's public service. In general, outside work activities are not allowed when they:
 - a. prevent the employee from fully performing work for which he or she is employed with the City, including overtime assignments;
 - b. involve organizations that are doing or seek to do business with the City, including actual or potential vendors or customers; or
 - c. violate provisions of law or the City's policies or rules.
2. Occasionally, City employees may be required to work beyond their normally scheduled hours. Employees must perform this work when requested. In cases of conflict with any outside activity, the employee's obligations to the City must be given priority. Employees are hired and continue in the City's employment with the understanding that the City is their primary employer and that other employment or commercial involvement, which is in conflict with the business interests or public services of the City, is strictly prohibited.
3. Injuries or illnesses sustained as a result of the secondary employment are not eligible for worker's compensation under the City's worker's compensation policy. Filing a compensation claim in this manner is considered fraud.

C. COMPUTER, E-MAIL AND INTERNET USAGE.

1. Objective

The City of Oneonta recognizes that use of the Internet and e-mail is necessary in the workplace, and employees are encouraged to use the Internet and e-mail systems responsibly, as unacceptable use can place the City and others at risk. This policy outlines the guidelines for acceptable use of the City's technology systems

2. Scope

- a. This policy must be followed in conjunction with other city policies governing appropriate workplace conduct and behavior. Any employee who abuses the city-provided access to e-mail, the Internet, or other electronic communications or networks, including social media, may be denied future access and, if appropriate, be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination. The City complies with all applicable federal, state and local laws as they concern the employer/employee relationship, and nothing contained herein should be misconstrued to violate any of the rights or responsibilities contained in such laws.
- b. Employees with questions regarding the appropriate use of the City's electronic communications equipment or systems, including e-mail and the Internet, should be directed to their department head.

3. Policy.

The City has established the following guidelines for employee use of the City's technology and communications networks, including the Internet and e-mail, in an appropriate, ethical and professional manner.

4. Confidentiality and Monitoring.

- a. All technology provided by The City of Oneonta, including computer systems, communication networks, city-related work records and other information stored electronically, is the property of the City and not the employee. In general, use of the city's technology systems and electronic communications should be job-related and not for personal convenience. The City reserves the right to examine, monitor and regulate e-mail and other electronic communications, directories, files and all other content, including Internet use, transmitted by or stored in its technology systems, whether onsite or offsite.

- b. Internal and external e-mail, voice mail, text messages and other electronic communications are considered business records and may be subject to discovery in the event of litigation. Employees must be aware of this possibility when communicating electronically within and outside the City.

5. Appropriate Use.

- a. City employees are expected to use technology responsibly and productively as necessary for their jobs. Internet access and e-mail use is for job-related activities; however, minimal personal use is acceptable.
- b. Employees may not use the City's Internet, e-mail or other electronic communications to transmit, retrieve or store any communications or other content of a defamatory, discriminatory, harassing or pornographic nature. No messages with derogatory or inflammatory remarks about an individual's race, age, disability, religion, national origin, physical attributes or sexual preference may be transmitted. Harassment of any kind is prohibited.
- c. Disparaging, abusive, profane or offensive language and any illegal activities—including piracy, cracking, extortion, blackmail, copyright infringement and unauthorized access to any computers on the Internet or e-mail—are forbidden.
- d. Copyrighted materials belonging to entities other than the City may not be transmitted by employees on the city's network without permission of the copyright holder.
- e. Employees may not use the City's computer systems in a way that disrupts its use by others. This includes sending or receiving excessive numbers of large files and spamming (sending unsolicited e-mail to thousands of users).
- f. Employees are prohibited from downloading software or other program files or online services from the Internet without prior approval from the City. All files or software should be passed through virus-protection programs prior to use. Failure to detect viruses could result in corruption or damage to files or unauthorized entry into city systems and networks.

- g. Every employee of the City is responsible for the content of all text, audio, video or image files that he or she places or sends over the city's Internet and e-mail systems. No e-mail or other electronic communications may be sent that hide the identity of the sender or represent the sender as someone else.
